

Volunteer role description

RACE SIDE CHEER POINT VOLUNTEER

Brighton Half Marathon Sunday 24 February

Join our friendly team of volunteers and supporters race side at the Brighton Half Marathon and together show your appreciation and solidarity for our fantastic Team Macmillan runners.

Your cheering and encouragement will mean a huge amount to all our charity participants, many raising money in support or memory of loved ones with cancer. You will be inspiring them and others to help Macmillan in the future so everyone with cancer can live life as fully as they can.

What's involved?

- You could be helping on our water station helping hydrate our runners or on our cheerpoint
- Help set up and decorate your cheer point with flags and banners
- As part of our team, cheer on all Team Macmillan runners as they pass, from first till last passes
- If you are on social media share your pictures and experience using #TeamMacmillan
- Act as an ambassador for Macmillan on the day of the event.

What will you get out of it?

- Join a friendly team of people who want to make a difference, just like you
- Receive instructions and support in advance and on the day to maximise your impact
- We can cover pre-agreed out-of-pocket expenses reimbursed within our guidelines
- Have a rewarding experience supporting our runners and being part of the event

How much time should I give?

We're looking for volunteers who can spare a few hours on the day of the event on Sunday, 24 February.

Apply today by completing an online application form.

We'll contact you to discuss the role in more detail and answer any questions you may have. Contact Grace on 0207 0912 072 or gracebrown@macmillan.org.uk to find out more.

We want to help everyone with cancer find their best way through, from the moment of diagnosis, so they're able to live life as fully as they can. You can be someone who makes that happen. Whether it's minutes or months, hours or days, the time you give by volunteering for Macmillan really does matter.

Make time matter. Volunteer today.
